Positive characteristics or strengths of the course/instructor

She is really intelligent and is always prepared for class. I admire her work and willingness to work with students.

Professor Aswad was a very relatable teacher. She was also extremely helpful in understanding topics that came up in class as well as providing hands on assignments that made the information come to life.

Great instructor she was very patient with me and was very helpful with making sure I understood the course.

Criticisms concerning the course/instructor

The lab doesn't feel pertinent to our work for the main course. The time could be better spent asking specific questions. This has nothing to do with Ms. Ghazal Aswad, but more the course in general. It just seems like the time was somewhat wasted.
